The purpose of our trip was to Newfoundland & Labrador was to promote your legal support business and to inform the legal community of our directory services. Our Banner was placed above the bar at the Big Sea Concert and our name was at the top of the prize list distributed at the Expo entrance. Our contest winner was Malcolm Boyle, McInnis Cooper, Barristers and Solicitors, in Halifax, NS. We enjoyed meeting and mixing with everyone!

The famous Newfoundland hospitality, beautiful scenery, some great seafood and Celtic music will stay with us forever.

The highlights of the conference were: watching the sunset from Signal Hill, being invited to take part in Stewart McKelvey Stirling Scales famous kitchen party aboard the good ship Shandithi at Pier 7 in St. John's Harbour and visiting the Supreme Court, Family Law Court and the Public Legal Association of NL, on famous Water Street, where we donated many up to date copies of Canada's Legal Support Directory.

Print Deadline for Spring / Summer Directory

The print deadline for our next edition is March 15, 2007 for any new companies or changes or updates to existing contact information and display advertisements.

CBA Conference St. John's, NL, 2006

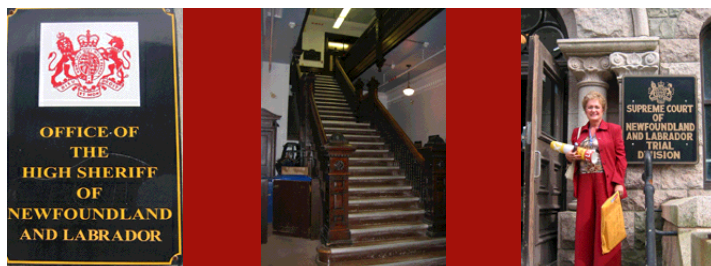

Newfoundland is a place easier to get to than leave we found. The CBA Conference was most successful and very lively! In St. John's we met and mixed with over 800 legal professionals and introduced them to CLSD, your directory.

More from the East Coast - Lormit Process Services & Don Brett & Associates, Botwood, NL

I am planning an annual meeting for the Alternative Measures Programme, being hosted in Grand Falls-Windsor and I am the chairperson. Alternative Measures deals with first-time young offenders under the Youth Criminal Justice Act. The young person must admit to the offence and some form of suitable punishment is worked out. If he or she completes the contract, there is no criminal record ~ it gives them a second chance. It was nice to meet you and Andy and to realize that your directory is compiled by real people who work hard for all of us advertisers. I'm sure your presentations and the contacts you made will help promote all of your advertisers "from coast to coast". Since this conference, I feel lawyers and staff are more aware of CLSD and will use it even more!

CCANS Civil Constables Association of Nova Scotia

We are pleased to welcome this new group of Civil Constables to our directory, representing bailiffs and process servers of Nova Scotia. See their website at www.ccans.ca.

Retraction - Our Apologies

Mark Mongrain is not the owner of Public History Inc. as stated in our last newsletter but continues to be a vital part of this company.

Obituary Hector the Collector from Jeff, New Business Owner

This past spring, sadly, Wilf Tantrum passed away. He always enjoyed life and had a real passion for the bailiff business. If Wilf was asked a question, he had an answer. When a problem arose, he was there to help out, and he was never afraid to speak his mind. Wilf always had a story or two, enough to fill a book! His love of sports and knowledge of it was immeasurable. Many drew from his strengths and many followed as he led. With his passing, which came too soon and suddenly for us all; at least we have our memories, to share and to keep for ourselves.

And Now Across the Country to BC, Chetwynd & Area Document Services, Leo Sabulsky, Chetwynd, BC

You are invited to listen on Wednesday evenings to my radio show, "Leo & Friends", on Peace FM, and on Streaming Audio at peacefm.ca. I play only Rock and Roll from the 50's to early 70's and have a feature called, "Are you a salty nut"? I ask trivia questions. If a person wins, they are sent a can of nuts and are declared, "the salty nut of the week ~ and the smartest person alive!!" I average 8 to 10 calls an hour and have given salty nuts to people in the area and as far away as Nebraska, Dallas, Texas, and even, Manilla. A lawyer by the name of Glenn Stasiuk of Dawson Creek sponsors the show. When I did a piece on the song, The House of the Rising Sun, I contacted Pete Seeger and befriended him. In November, I am interviewing Pete. If any process server wants to hear Pete or be declared the salty nut of week tune in - and be in touch!

For Your Best Results come online with www.karma.ca and give us enough information to attract attention to your company. In print a display ad can greatly increase awareness of your company.

If you have a news item or a new service such as record retrieval or pre-employment screening we would be pleased to add these or any new sections in our next print edition. Plan to send new information and ads to us at Karma before March 15.

With conferences and business promotions, updating our web site with Google, publishing our newest directory, with new ads and a few interesting photos, as well as welcoming new companies for your community of legal support business connections, and extending our boundries to the south by linking with BRB Publishing, we have had a very busy last half year. We are pleased to have that opportunity and appreciate your wonderful feed back, support and business. Do keep in touch and drive carefully!
